PADDINGTON & THE CHRISTMAS VISITOR

He hurries over to the window, flings it open and finds a man rubbing his head. The man is a burglar carrying a big bag of stolen presents. But with his red coat, his red stocking on his head and his beard, Paddington mistakes him for Santa Claus.

Through the window Paddington and the burglar watch Alice unwrap her Christmas present. The man understands the true spirit of Christmas.

That night a journalist breaks the news that Santa was caught on camera in London not with an elf...but with a bear! Paddington is the hero who saves Christmas!

Paddington recognises the name of his friend Alice on a gift tag. He decides to help Santa Claus. Together they redeliver all the presents the burglar has stolen.

Finally Paddington gives the burglar a marmalade sandwich, wishes him Merry Christmas and receives a hug in return. The man regrets his criminal past and say thank you to Paddington.

Paddington is dreaming about a jar of marmalade when he hears Santa Claus on the roof above.

To go back home, Paddington decides to take Santa's sleigh. He is just making himself comfortable, when the Christmas decoration sleigh starts to slip.

They also eat delicious mince pies on the way.

The man shuts his eyes and waits for the crash. But when he opens his eyes again...they are flying!
