

Audrey Hepburn

4 May 1929 - 20 June 1993

British actress

Private life

* born in Belgium - spent her childhood between Belgium, England and the Netherlands

* Married Mel Ferrer (1954-1968) : one son, Sean (17/07/1960)

* Married Andrea Dotti (1969-1982) : one son, Luca (8/02/1970)

* spoke English, French, Italian, Dutch, Spanish and German

Career :

- Studied ballet and performed as a chorus girl in West End musical theatre productions
 - starred in the 1951 Broadway play 'Gigi'
- played the lead role in 'Roman Holiday' (1953)
 - became extremely famous
 - played in numerous successful films :
Breakfast at Tiffany's, My Fair Lady, Wait until Dark
 - devoted her later life to Unicef

What to remember of her career and awards?

Tony award for Best Lead Actress in a Play, for her performance in Ondine (1953)

Academy Award + Golden Globe + BAFTA Award for a single performance in Roman Holiday (1953)

& one of the few people who have won Academy, Emmy, Grammy and Tony

Awards

was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom for her work as a

Unicef Goodwill Ambassador