So that means everybody's a part to play to help stop this needless behaviour online. Play your part by using 'Stop, block, tell'. Stop - stop and think before posting something online that might be upsetting to someone. Think about how you would feel if you were in their position. Block – if you are a victim of cyberbullying, block and report the person that has been bullying you. Tell – if you think you are being cyber-bullied, report the person that is bullying you to a parent, guardian or teacher. Cyberbullying is not ok, nobody deserves this, and we can all help put an end to it, for good.

Cyberbullying is a problem that everyone who uses the internet needs to be aware of.

February 9th is Safer Internet Day in the UK.

A 13-year-Irish boy stood up to cyberbullies with his powerful new campaign video entitled

Create no Hate

Luke Culhane from Limerick wrote, produced and starred in this short film that shows him suffering physical injury and pain each time he is the victim of online bullying. He said: "I have been cyber-bullied myself so that inspired me to make this video to help raise awareness for other people about how to handle cyber-bullying. I wanted to show that it doesn't have to be physical bullying to hurt someone so that's why I showed the likeness between the two types of bullying. I felt that Safer Internet Day was an appropriate time to release this video to create discussion around the issue."

In your opinion Luke's campaign is ...

- effective  moving  simple  useful  stupid  shocking  informative  disturbing

Recap Luke's 3 practical steps against bullying :

- STOP and think before posting a message that could be hurtful to someone.
- BLOCK and report any online bullies to the platform auditors.
- TELL a teacher, parent or guardian if you are being cyberbullied.

Discussion : Have you ever experienced bullying ?

X AMBASSADORS lyrics

"Renegades"

Run away-ay with me
Lost souls in revelry
Running wild and running free
Two kids, you and me

And I said hey
Hey, hey, hey
Living like we're renegades
Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey
Living like we're renegades
Renegades, renegades

Long live the pioneers
Rebels and mutineers
Go forth and have no fear
Come close and lend an ear

And I said hey
Hey, hey, hey
Living like we're renegades
Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey
Living like we're renegades
Renegades, renegades

So, all hail the underdogs
All hail the new kids
All hail the outlaws
Spielbergs and Kubricks

It's our time to make a move
It's our time to make amends
It's our time to break the rules
Let's begin...

And I said hey
Hey, hey, hey
Living like we're renegades
Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey
Living like we're renegades
Renegades, renegades
